A little bit about Cookie & Crumble...

Cookie & Crumble came to the centre via an inspector after they were abandoned by their previous owner, they are sweet girls but can be quite nervous when meeting new people. Crumble ( Tabby ) is the most confident of the two but sadly Cookie is still very scared and will need very patient and understanding adopters who will help them overcome their traumatic past. Cookie and Crumble need a nice quiet home where they can settle in their own time, Crumble will always come for a fuss and really enjoys some quality time with you. Cookie is happy to watch on taking everything in. After such a rubbish time these two beauties really do deserve their happy ever after. They will need to be the only pets in an adult only home where they will be permanent house cats.
