A little bit about Luther and Buster...

These two gorgeous boys came to the centre via an inspector after they were abandoned by their previous owner. Buster is a very friendly and confident boy and Luther is very friendly but a little on the shy side when meeting people for the first time. They are such stunning lovely big boys who will make wonderful family pets, they may be a little shy at first but should settle quite quickly. They are very gentle and kind natured who like to snooze in their beds watching the world go by, they will come for a fuss, have a snack and then go back to bed for a sleep. Buster and Luther will be suitable to live with children aged 13 years and over so long as they understand Luther is quite shy and will need time to settle. They will be homed together and would need to be the only cats in the home.

My personality...

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle
