A little bit about Scout & Percy...

Scout and Percy are nice boys who came to the centre via an inspector after their previous owner could no longer meet their needs. They are really sweet natured with Scout ( tabby ) being the most confident out of the two, Percy was ever so scared when he first arrived at the centre, spending most of the time hiding himself away. Scout although a little overwhelmed was a friendly lad, coming for a fuss and letting Percy know there is nothing to be afraid about. Percy is now coming out of his shell and coming for a fuss, realising people are that bad after all. They will need a quiet home with a family who have a spare room to give them while they settle in, Percy just needs a little bit of time then he will make the most wonderful friend. They are super boys who deserve their happy ending. Scout and Percy could probably live with other cats and could live with children aged 14 years and over.

My personality...

Please adopt me with my friend

I'll probably spend more time inside

I could live with children of secondary school age

I love a cat nap
