A little bit about Murphy...

Murphy is a sweet but shy boy who came to the centre via the dog warden, this poor lad was abandoned and left to fend for himself until he was eventually found and taken to safety. Murphy is slowly coming out of his shell and learning to trust people, sadly we do not know his history and are unsure why he is so shy around meeting new people. Murphy is well mannered and a lovely lad once he realises we are going to be kind to him. Once Murphy does know you he is an extremely friendly and affectionate boy, he will need patient adopters who will help him overcome his insecurities and adjust to family life. Murphy will need a secure enclosed garden, he loves to do zoomies and is a joy to watch as he runs around enjoying himself. He will need recall training before he is ever let off his lead which is why he will need his own secure garden. Murphy is such a sweet boy and really deserves a loving new home. Murphy is very sociable around other dogs so can live with another dog after a successful introduction at the centre and will need an adult only home.
