A little bit about Felix & Salem...

Felix and Salem came to the centre via an inspector after their previous owner could no longer meet their needs. They were so scared when they first arrived here at the centre and were a bit overwhelmed at coming into rescue. Slowly with lots of time, love and patience they started coming out of their shell and instead of hiding away they come for a fuss and really enjoy being with you. They are super boys who have overcome so much since being rescued from their previous home, they just need a loving new home. Adopters will need a room they dedicate to the boys just while they settle in and gain some confidence, it hopefully will not take too long for them to overcome their insecurities. They will make smashing pets if only someone will give them a chance. They could live with children aged 14 years and over and they must go together.

My personality...

Please adopt me with my friend

I'll probably spend more time inside

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle
