A little bit about Felix & Salem...

Felix and Salem came to the centre via an inspector after their previous owner could no longer meet their needs. They are two very scared little boys at the moment and have been overwhelmed coming into rescue. They are both slowly coming out of their shell but unfortunately spend most of the time hiding themselves away. Felix and Salem just need understanding adopters who will let them settle in their own time, they are friendly and do enjoy a fuss but they just need a little time to trust you. Adopters will need a room they dedicate to the boys just while they settle in and gain some confidence, it hopefully will not take too long for them to overcome their insecurities. They will make smashing pets if only someone will give them a chance. They will could live with children aged 14 years and over and they must go together.

My personality...

Please adopt me with my friend

I'll probably spend more time inside

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle
