A little bit about Cooper...

Cooper is a sweet boy who came to the centre via an an inspector after his previous owner could no longer meet his needs. He is a shy boy when meeting new people so will need a nice patient adopter who will bring out the best in him. Once he has settled and built a bond with you he is sweetest, most loving and playful boy you could want. Cooper had a tough start to life and missed out on most of his early learning and socialising which is why he lacks confidence in the big wide world. Cooper has built a bond with the staff and is coming out of his shell and learning to love life, he has been getting used to things at a slow pace as to not overwhelm him. He loves his walks and being out and about, he loves his zoomies when off lead in our secure compound. Cooper is a very loyal dog and looks to his handlers to keep him safe when he is in unfamiliar surroundings. Cooper is a fun and playful boy who will make the most wonderful addition to the family. Cooper will need an adult only pet free home, although he is sociable with most dogs out on a walk, he will be better in a home where he is the only pet.
