A little bit about Alice...

Alice came to the centre as she had sadly been abandoned on the street, she was then fed by a kind lady who became unwell and could no longer feed her. So here she is looking for a stable forever home where she can have her happy ever after. Alice is initially a very shy girl who likes a quiet place to hide, once she has settled and feels confident she soon comes for a fuss and loves the company. Alice just needs a nice quiet home with adopters who will give her a little time to overcome her insecurities, she loves to snooze in her comfy bed and watch the world go by. Alice is not really up for playing at the moment but hopefully when she is settled in a home her playful side will show itself. After living for so many years on the street, Alice really does deserve to be in a loving new home, all cosy and warm in the cold winter months. Alice will need to be the only cat in the home, a permanent house cat in an adult only home.

My personality...

I need to be the only cat

I need to be a permanent house cat

I need an adult only home

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle
