A little bit about Tallulah...

Tallulah came to the centre as an unclaimed, unchipped and unspayed stray. This poor little cat is so shy and extremely nervous of humans, we are looking for adopters who have had experience with very nervous cats. Potential adopters will need lots of time, patience, understanding and be able to let her settle in her own time. We know nothing of Tallulah's past life but we can only come to the conclusion that it was not a very nice start to life due to her insecurities. Tallulah is coming on slowly but surely at the centre so we now feel she is ready to move on to the next stage. Adopters will need to be extra vigilant with windows and doors so Tallulah has no way of getting out. We are looking for an adult only home where she will remain as a house cat. PLEASE NOTE, we will be collecting perfect match forms and selecting the most suitable home for Tallulah.
