A little bit about Cookie & Caramel...

Cookie and Caramel are sweet but shy girls who came to the centre as their previous owner could no longer manage their needs. They are lovely girls who are coming out of their shell and showing what adorable girls they are, they love napping together and then coming for a fuss. Cookie (tortie) is the most confident out of the two giving Caramel the confidence she needs. They are now relaxed enough to start playing with their toys and now enjoy a quick game. They do like to chill in their beds and watch the world go by. They would prefer a quiet home where they will be given the time and patience to help them settle and overcome their insecurities. Cookie & Caramel could possibly live with children aged 16 years and over, they would be suitable house cats if needed.
