A little bit about Pyewacket...

This gorgeous girl came to the centre with 3 other cats via an inspector after they were removed from their previous home due to being found in terrible condition. After lengthy legal proceedings she is now available for adoption so we can find her, her forever home. She came to the centre emaciated and suffering from untreated feline viruses, with lots of good vet care, patience and love she is now ready to find her happy ever after. One of the virus's she carries is Calicivirus, which sadly means she can not live with other cats as she is a carrier of the virus. She manages very well and lives a happy comfortable life. She can be a little shy and aloof with people she does not know but when she does know you she is extremely loving, loyal and affectionate. Pye really is a lovely girl who loves to sit with you getting lots of fusses, she likes a good play but with then happily sit with you and have a snooze. Pye has been through so much and suffered such neglect and has come out the other side, we really would love to see this sweet cat in the loving home she absolutely deserves. Pye is a very sensitive girl so we are looking for a nice quiet home where she will be the centre of attention. Pye will need to be the only pet in an adult only home where she will be a permanent house cat.
