A little bit about Maggie & Bertha...

Maggie and Bertha came to the centre via a local vet as they were found abandoned together in a supermarket carpark, as you can imagine after such a terrible ordeal this has left Maggie a little shy when meeting new people. Bertha the daughter is a confident little girl who loves a fuss. Maggie does not take too long to come round and once she realised you mean no harm she is very friendly and loves a fuss. Maggie and Bertha will be best suited to a family who lead quite a quiet lifestyle as too much hustle and bustle will unsettle them. They are absolutely devoted to each other and stuck by each others side when they were abandoned, they really are a wonderful pair of cats who will make great family pets. They are suitable to live with children aged 13 years and over, they would also make suitable house cats if needed.
