A little bit about Tiny...

Tiny came to the centre via an inspector after his needs were not getting met. He is now fit and healthy and ready to start the next chapter in his life story. Tiny was in a terrible state not only physically but emotionally as well when he first came to the centre. Sadly he just did not trust anyone, with lots of time, patience and love Tiny started to learn to trust again and gain his confidence. Tiny received all the vet care he needed and then it was down to us to show him that he can trust people and that he is loved. Unfortunately due to some trauma to his tail despite our best efforts we were unable to save it and he had to have it amputated. This has all fully healed and Tiny has coped ever so well. Tiny is still quite nervous around people he does not know so adopters will need to bare this in mind and give him the time he needs to settle. He does enjoy a fuss but can get spooked quite easily, he has come a long way from the cat who first came through our doors. He now just needs his happy ending with a family who will love him unconditionally and give him the loving home he so very much deserves. Tiny will need to be the only pet in an adult only home.

My personality...

I need to be the only cat

I'll probably spend more time inside

I need an adult only home

I love a cat nap
