A little bit about Oreo...

Oreo is a sweet but shy boy who came to the centre via an inspector after his previous owner could not meet his needs. Poor Oreo was in a bit of a state, he had quite a bit of fur loss and scabs due to an untreated flea bite. He has now recieved all the medical treatment and ready to find his forever home. Although he still looks a bit tatty, it will not take long for his coat to become shiny and silky soft. Oreo can be a little nervous and hides when meeting new people but after a couple of minuites he simply can not resist coming out for a fuss, he loves a stroke and has the most amazing purr on him. He will just need adopters who will give him some time and space to settle and he will be a wonderful addition to the family. He will need a home with a spare room they can dedicate to him just while he settles and gets used to his new home. Oreo will need to be the only pet in adult only home. He will be a suitable house cat.
