A little bit about Bob...

Bob is a super sweet boy who came to the centre via an inspector after he was found abandoned, tied up in a bag and dumped in a bush. Despite his ordeal, Bob is a very friendly, chilled and very loving boy. No matter where he is, when he hears you coming he will come running for a fuss. He makes the most of every single second you spend with him, appreciating everything. Bob will make an amazing addition to the family lucky enough to adopt him, it is unknown if he has ever lived with other cats but he has shown no animosity towards the other cats here at the centre. Bob is suitable to live with cats aged 5 years and over.

My personality...
