A little bit about Harley & Ruby...

Ruby and Harley are very special cats who are looking for a very special home. Sadly they came to the centre as their previous devoted owner became ill and could no longer keep them. They are completely devastated and have been very overwhelmed coming into rescue. With lots of patience and TLC they are slowly settling and coming out of themselves and showing their true characters. Ruby does like to stay hidden in her safe space but does really enjoy a fuss and being with you, she is just not ready yet to come out. Harley is getting much better and will now come out and approach you for a fuss. It has taken a lot of time and patience with these two beautiful cats, seeing them now enjoying our company and actually purring is fantastic. We now feel they are ready for their next chapter and to find themselves a new loving home. Adopters will need a spare room dedicated to Ruby and Harley with lots of hidden spaces for them, so long as they are given time and lots of love they will make wonderful pets. We really would love to find them the home they crave. Ruby and Harley will need to permanent housecats, in an adult only, pet free home.
