A little bit about Diesel...

Diesel is a smashing dog who was sadly tied up to our front door one night and abandoned by his previous owner. Diesel is a very loyal dog and spent his first few days just constantly looking for his previous owners. Diesel has now accepted that we will find him a new family who will love and cherish him. Diesel is a very friendly lad who loves being with his people, he loves to be out and about exploring and making the most of his time out. Diesel can become a little impatient when getting kitted up for his walks and chew on the lead, he is walked on a chain lead here at the centre while we try and train him not to do it. Once he is walking he does not do it. Diesel is sociable with other dogs and could potentially live with another of similar temperament after a successful introduction at the centre. We would love to see this sweet little boy in a loving home, snuggled upon the sofa with his new family.
