A little bit about Bentley...

Bentley is a sweet boy who came to the centre via our friends at the Hull Branch after not receiving much interest there. Bentley is a great dog who is looking for a second chance to find himself a loving new home. Bentley is loving and affectionate and loves to be with his people, he walks well on a lead but can also be quite a stubborn little lad if he decides he does not want to go for a walk, which is fine, we just turn around and go another way. Bentley will need adopters who are experienced with dogs, he is not suitable for first time dog owners. Bentley is a dog who if he is in his bed, he just needs to be left alone and he will be happy as Larry. Bentley can be a little nervous in new situations and strange surroundings so adopters will need to understand this and keep him safe until his confidence grows. Bentley is a super little dog, who just needs an owner who understands him and he will make the most wonderful and loyal best friend. Bentley will need to be the only dog on an adult only home.

My personality...
