A little bit about Bo...

Bo is a sweet boy who came to the centre after his previous owner did not want him anymore, poor Bo has already through no fault of his own had a few homes, this has understandably left him a little confused with the world. He can be quite a shy a boy when meeting new people and adjusting to new surroundings and just needs his person to help him overcome his insecurities. Bo does form very strong bonds with his people and simply loves to be around them, he needs a family who will guide him in his journey and give him the secure home he so desperately craves. Staff have been working alongside our behaviourist to help Bo make the right choices and navigate the big wide world. Bo is a lovely and friendly boy who is always happy and ready to face the day so long as his people are by his side. Bo is an active dog who will need an equally active family who will keep him both mentally and physically stimulated. Bo is a fantastic dog who will make his adopters a very loving and loyal best friend. Bo is sociable with dogs and could live with one after a successful introduction at the centre, he can live with children aged 12 years and over. Adopters will have a session with our behaviourist before adoption.

My personality...

I need training how to sit nicely (and then I can master the rest)

I need teaching that it's ok to be alone

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a bright spark

I get on well with many other dogs

I love fuss and attention
