A little bit about Wally...

Wally came to the centre via an inspector after his needs were not getting met. He is a sweet but shy boy when meets people for the first time. Once he knows he is safe, he loves deep sigh cuddles, gentle ear scratches, and being your loyal shadow. If you have the patience to let him open up at his own pace, he will promise to give you a lifetime of love & devotion. The first time you meet, he might not run up to you wagging his tail. he might look at you with big, worried eyes from a safe distance but the world can just feel a little overwhelming to me sometimes. He soon comes round and then you will see his playful cheeky and loving side, the side we see everyday. We have recently seen his love of the water and has been swimming in the river with the staff. Wally is ready make memories and go on adventures with his new family, he is ready to make up for lost time and all he has missed out on before coming here. Wally does need some further training, he is extremely intelligent and thrives on learning new things. Wally can be quite vocal when he gets excited, it is just his way. Wally would be best suited with experienced dog owners to give him the best chance of transitioning in to his new home. Wally is sociable with other dogs while out on a walk and enjoys having a play about with them.

My personality...

I know how to sit (and lots of other commands too!)

I need teaching that it's ok to be alone

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a bright spark

I get on well with many other dogs

I love fuss and attention
