A little bit about Woody & Jessie...

Woody & Jessie came to the centre via the local stray dog service, they are friendly little dogs who are now looking for a home to call their own. Sadly we have no background information on them and we just can not understand why they would have been abandoned. They love a fuss and will lap up as much attention as you can give them, they would love a home where they will just get cherished. They enjoy their little walks and love being out and about, they can be quite vocal when on the lead so their new adopters will need to work on this with them. They are not vocal when walked on their own so they do seem to egg each other on. They would be best suited with a family who have experience with the dachshund breed but not essential. Woody and Jessie would need to be the only dogs in the home and could live with teenage children and over.

My personality...

I need training how to sit nicely (and then I can master the rest)

I need teaching that it's ok to be alone

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm small but full of fun

Please adopt me with my friend

I love fuss and attention
