A little bit about Luna...

Luna is a sweet young adult, who is now ready to find her forever home Luna came to us heavily pregnant, she gave birth to 5 kittens while in foster and raised them so well, but while her kittens are getting adopted out quickly, Luna is now waiting for her turn Luna is a very kind a gentle girly, she loves her head boops and strokes, often helping us sweep or following us around the pen waiting for us to give her all the love she deserves Luna could live with; Children of any age Cat savvy dog (with correct introductions) While we feel Luna would best suit a home with no other cats, and this would be more of a priority, we may consider a home with other cats if new owners are willing to be slow and patient in the introduction period without any rushing. Medical Information; Microchipped Vaccinated Fiv/felv tested (negative) Up to date with flea and wormer Full veterinary health check Neutered Could you be Luna's new forever family??
