A little bit about Milo...

Milo is a very sweet little lad whose previous owner sadly became unwell and had to make the difficult decision to let us find him a new family who will love him and give him a second chance of happiness. Milo is a friendly lad but unfortunately has not experienced much of the outside world recently so can be quite unsure and become a little overwhelmed. Staff have been working on slowly building his confidence at his own pace and Milo has come on in leaps and bounds. His new family will need to carry on with his training and helping him realise and understand how much fun being out and about can be. Milo loves being with his people and loves to sit on the sofa with you and snuggle in for cuddles, Milo will need someone who is at home most of the time as he has never been left on his own and is used to having someone around all the time. Milo is unsure around other dogs and can be quite nervous of them if they suddenly approach him and take him by surprise. Slow and controlled introductions suit Milo best, he just needs some general overall confidence building with the help of his family. Milo really is a smashing little dog who will make a wonderful friend for someone, he will need to be the only pet in the home and can live with children aged 12 years and over.

My personality...

I walk nicely on a lead

I need teaching that it's ok to be alone

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm quiet but full of love

I need to be the only dog in the home

I love food and treats
