A little bit about Teddy...

Teddy's story hasn't had the easiest beginning. He came into the care of the RSPCA following an inspector's visit, having been found living in terrible conditions. He was painfully thin, his coat was filthy and he had completely shut down, understandably unsure of the world around him. But with time, patience and plenty of love and TLC, Teddy has slowly blossomed. His beautiful personality has begun to shine through, and now this special boy is ready to take his next big step – finding a loving forever home of his own. Teddy can be shy around people he doesn't know, and he will need patient, understanding adopters who are happy to take things at his pace. Building his trust will take time, but once you've earned it, you'll have the most loyal of companions. When Teddy gives you his heart, he gives it wholeheartedly. He will need an adult-only home with people who are committed to helping him overcome his insecurities and build his confidence. His new family must be prepared for multiple visits to the centre to allow a bond to develop, and they will also have the opportunity to meet with the centre's behaviourist before adoption to ensure everyone is set up for success. Teddy is good with other dogs and could potentially share his home with a calm, quiet canine companion who can help him feel secure. And what makes Teddy really happy? Toys! He absolutely adores them and, given the choice, would happily spend his days playing. He does have a sensitive tummy, so his treats will need to be chosen carefully. After everything Teddy has been through, he deserves nothing less than a home filled with kindness, patience and unconditional love. Could you be the special person Teddy has been waiting for? He may need a little extra time to trust you, but the love and loyalty you'll receive in return will be worth every second. Please don't overlook this beautiful boy. He has so much love left to give.
