A little bit about Ghost...

Meet Ghost – Our Gentle Husky Gentleman

Ghost is a middle-aged Husky who came into our care as a stray through the local stray dog service. Now this handsome boy is hoping someone will give him the second chance he truly deserves.

Ghost can be a little shy when meeting new people and will need an adopter who understands that trust takes time. He isn't the type of dog to rush into a friendship, but once he gets to know you, his sweet nature really shines through. He can sometimes come across as a little aloof, but underneath that independent Husky personality is a very special boy.

One thing Ghost absolutely loves is his toys! He could happily spend hours playing, whether that's entertaining himself or enjoying a game with his favourite human. Playtime is definitely one of his favourite things!

Ghost can be quite wary when visiting the vets, so he'll need a patient and understanding owner who can help him through these experiences and make vet visits as positive and stress-free as possible.

We will be looking for an experienced home, ideally with previous experience of Huskies or similar breeds. Ghost will need multiple meets at the centre before adoption, giving him the opportunity to build a relationship with his new family at his own pace.

He must be the only pet in an adult-only home.

Ghost is a true gentleman who may take a little time to let you into his world, but we believe the reward will be worth every second. Once settled, he has the potential to become your most loyal and devoted companion.
