A little bit about Princess...

Princess came to the centre via an inspector in appalling condition, this poor sweet girl was found to have quite a few wounds on her body. After being taken to the vets it was discovered she had been attacked by dog, not only that she had not been taken to a vet to receive treatment for her injuries. Princess's wounds have pretty much healed but we are still waiting for her fur to grow back, which it will. She is a very sweet, gentle and friendly cat who would love to find a new family who will love and cherish her. For obvious reasons we are looking for a home with no dogs, she could live with children aged 8 years and over and we are unsure if she could live with another cat. Princess has been through a real tough time so we are hoping someone will find it their heart to share their sofa with her. She spends most of her days snoozing in her castle so we think she would prefer the quiet life.

My personality...

I'd prefer to be the only cat in a home

I'll probably spend more time inside

I could live with children of secondary school age

I love a cat nap
