A little bit about Bandit...

Bandit came to the centre after his owner could sadly no longer look after him, he is a very friendly boy who will make a great pet. Bandit has bundles of energy and just loves his exercise so we are looking for an active family who will give him the exercise he needs. Bandit is still very young and could benefit from attending some training classes which he will enjoy as he loves learning new things and enjoys a challenge. Bandit lives life to the max and everyday is a happy day for Bandit. Please give this lad a chance and give him the fabulous home he deserves. Bandit has been working under our behaviorist and has come on so well, adopters will need to meet with her and ensure his training is continued. Bandit is an intelligent dog and really does love learning new things. Bandit will need an adopter who is experienced with large breed dogs and who will enjoy teaching him new things and keeping him both mentally and physically stimulated.
