A little bit about Opie & Lola...

Opie and Lola came to the centre as their previous owner could no longer keep them, they are very friendly dogs who will make absolutely smashing additions to the family. Firstly we know this is a big ask for someone to take two big dogs on together but they are so bonded to each other that we felt it only right to at least try and re home them together. Opie (tan) can be a little shy when meeting people for the first time and gains lots of confidence from Lola. Lola is very confident and outgoing and will make friends with everyone she meets. Once Opie sees there is nothing to be worried about he will then go say hi. Opie and Lola are both fully housetrained and can be left on their own for short periods as they have each other for company. Although Opie is a giant dog he is ever so gentle and even tries to get on your lap for a cuddle, Lola is quite happy to sit next to you on the sofa for cuddles, so long as they get plenty of fuss and cuddles they want for not much else. Despite their size they actually walk very well on their leads after their initial excitement of going for a walk, they enjoy being out and about but prefer the slower pace of life. We would be absolutely thrilled if someone would find it their hearts to offer these two beauties a home together. They are suitable to live with children aged 12 years and over so long as they are used to large breeds of dogs.
