A little bit about Mr Jinx...

Mr Jinx came to the centre after living most of his life on the streets, the traumas of street life have understandably left Mr Jinx very nervous around people he does not know. Potential adopters will need to give him plenty of time and patience to help him settle into family life. Mr Jinx has gained in confidence since first arriving here but still needs that helping hand to make him see that people are not a threat to him any more. Adopters will need a spare room where Mr Jinx can base himself while he settles in and knows that is his safe space. He really has had such a tough life up to now, he really deserves a loving home where he can begin to enjoy life and be spoilt for the rest of his days. Mr Jinx will need to be the only pet in an adult only home. He will also need to be a permanent house cat.
