A little bit about Merlin...

Merlin came to the centre as his previous owner was moving and unable to take him with them. He is a friendly boy who will need a quiet home with adopters who will let him just do his own thing, he loves a fuss but will then happily take himself off for some quiet time on his own. Merlin will need a home where it is safe for him to go out and about, which means no busy roads as he is used to going out in a quiet area. Merlin is quite an independent cat so will need adopters who are willing to give him his own space when he wants it. He enjoys company and loves you to be around so we would love to see him happily settled in a loving new home. Merlin will need an adult only, pet free home. DUE TO THE HIGH VOLUME OF APPLICATIONS WE ARE RECEIVING, IF YOU HAVE NOT HEARD BACK FROM FROM US WITHIN 2 WEEKS IT MEANS UNFORTUNATELY YOU HAVE NOT BEEN SUCCESSFUL THIS TIME FOR THIS CAT.

My personality...

I may be able to live with another cat

I need to be able to go outside and explore

I need an adult only home

I'm independent; I like to do my own thing!
