A little bit about Felix and Lucy...

Felix and Lucy came to the centre as her previous owner sadly became unwell and could no longer take care of them, they are such friendly and loving cats and are missing being part of a loving home. They are missing their devoted owner so much so we would love to see them happily settled in a new home. Felix and Lucy are gentle, quiet and sweet natured cats who really should be in a loving home not in a rescue centre at thier age. Felix is the most confident of the two and Lucy is a little shy to begin with but once she knows you she is ever so affectionate, if you are looking for a pair of cats who will snuggle on the sofa with you then look no further, Felix and Lucy are the cats for you. They are best suited to being the only pets and children aged 13 years and over. HOUSE CATS
