A little bit about Stella...

Stella came to the centre via an inspector after her needs were not getting met, she is a very sweet but shy girl who is finding kennel life a little difficult to adjust to. Stella has sadly been left quite nervous with sudden movements and loud noises so we are looking for a nice quiet home where she will be given the time she needs to settle. Stella is ready to leave the past behind her and live a carefree life where she no longer needs to worry, she wants to go on nice walks, eat nice food and be cherished for the rest of her life. Stella will need an adult only home where she is the only pet in the home.

My personality...

I know how to sit (and lots of other commands too!)

I can be left alone for short periods

I'd prefer to be the only animal in a home

I'd prefer an adult only household

I'm quiet but full of love

I'd prefer to be the only dog in a home
