A little bit about Timmy...

Timmy came to the centre via an inspector after he was found all alone in terrible condition, he is a very shy lad so we are looking for a nice quiet home with adopters who are experienced with owning nervous dogs. Timmy is fantastic with other dogs and he gains confidence when around them so we are looking for adopters who already have a confident dog to help him overcome his insecurities. Other dogs really do bring out the best in Timmy and they make him happy the most. Timmy has had a very sad and traumatic life before he came to the centre so adopters will need to understand life from Timmys point of view. We are looking for a home where adopters will not leave Timmy for long periods while he is still so young, he will need an adult only home. Timmy is ready to start a new chapter in his life with a loving new family.
