A little bit about Amy...

Amy is a sweet girl who came to the centre via an inspector after she had been left fending for herself outside for 6 months, this lovely little girl has been left a little shy by her ordeal but is learning to trust again. She is looking for a nice quiet home where adopters will help her leave the past behind her and enjoy being in a loving new home. Once Amy trusts you she loves to come for a fuss and enjoys being with you, sudden and loud noises make her nervous but we believe this will improve in time with plenty of TLC. Amy was abandoned along with another cat who used to bully her so we are looking for her to be homed as an only cat as this has left her very cautious being around other cats. Amy will be suitable to live children aged 12 years and over.

My personality...

I'd prefer to be the only cat in a home

I'll probably spend more time inside

I could live with children of secondary school age

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle
